AWARD MESSAGE

Rahul , Thank you for your contribution towards guidance and providing directions related to the best practices of the angular development so that Digital Experience Platform POC could be build quickly . This helped to build a successful demo with the features which stakeholders were expecting. Despite of you having commitment on your current project, finding out time to help us when in need and provide direction was crucial to the success. Thank you again for your effort to work on this and look forward to take this DXP shape of actual platform and framework
